Thought for the Day:

A RIVER CUTS THROUGH ROCK,
NOT BECAUSE OF POWER,
BUT BECAUSE OF ITS PERSISTENCE.
— JIM WATKINS —

Bellwork Would you rather cross a river with piranhas or crocodiles? WHY??!

with piranhas

with crocodiles

Bellwork: I am the 4th largest continent. I am surrounded by the Pacific Ocean to my west and the Atlantic Ocean to my east. Spanish is the most widely spoken language on my continent and the Amazon River, the world's 2nd longest river, is located here also. What continent am I!?!?

Thought for the Day:

Bellwork: When might you prefer to use a globe instead of a map?

“Is it some kind of new ball sport?”

Bellwork: List 3 careers that require geography skills.

Billy-Joe was great on sport but lousy on geography.

Bellwork: Yesterday marked the 1/2 way point of the 1st quarter
Do you know what your grades are in all of your classes?

Come up with one goal (make it specific) that you are going to try to reach by the end of the quarter (10/11).

Failure
